

Overview of Services

Equipping you with tools to succeed, here's how we can help:

- We provide a free in-depth consultation
- Together we develop clear and concise plans that expedite your graduation
- Our work is "content free" so all majors can benefit from our services
- We provide data collection on-site, by mail, or on-line via a web survey
- We create easy to use surveys whose data are read directly into a computer
- Scanning surveys save hours of data entry and increases the integrity of your results
- Your data is available immediately in over 30 different formats for analysis (e.g. SPSS, Microsoft Excel, SAS, etc.)
- We assist with statistical analyses
- We help develop reports, charts, graphs, tables and data presentations
- Our personal, one on one services puts us above the rest

Contact us today and see how we can help you regain your momentum and complete the degree you have worked so hard on

info@surveydesignservices.com

www.surveymdesignservices.com

Survey Design Services
71 Village Dr. #2
Carbondale, IL 62902

SURVEY DESIGN SERVICES

Are you currently working on your graduate degree?

If so, did you know...

The average 2005 recipient of a PhD in Education took 13 years to complete their degree.

And 50% to 60% of all graduate students drop out before they finish.*

DON'T BE A STATISTIC!

Survey Design Services helps students complete their degrees. We offer a wide range of services that save you time in order to reach your goal of graduation.

*2005 Summary Report: Survey of Earned Doctorates

Survey

The Council of Graduate Schools reports these common obstacles for degree completion:

- Job related pressures
- Not enough time to work on the project, and
- The student's own perfectionism

Survey Design Services provides the assistance needed to complete your degree

We provide a FREE initial consultation that includes:

- A complete review of your written work by our staff before we talk
- Engage in open discussions regarding your course of study and what remains to be done
- Suggestions on the various ways we can assist you through the degree completion process

There is no pressure; you choose the services you want from a complete list of individualized options

Contracts are available by the hour or by the project

Survey Design

Specialists format your questionnaire using a state-of-the-art optical scan program

We will reformat an existing survey or help you start from scratch

Our services are content free, which means any discipline can benefit from our assistance

info@surveydesignservices.com

Design

Data Collection and Data Entry

Leave the logistics to us. Survey Design Services will distribute your surveys to your intended sample

We will collect your data and have the surveys returned directly to us

Completed surveys returned to SDS are instantly ready for data entry

Optically scanned data virtually eliminates mistakes often made with data entry by hand

Selected Analyses

We can conduct your data analysis and help interpret your results in "plain English" to answer your study's research questions

We can assist with turning your results into visual output like tables, charts, or graphs

We will review and assist with the development of your final report and presentation

We offer professional review services for department and APA formatting

Services

Who are we?

Research professionals with earned Doctorates and years of experience in graduate research and design

We've helped many students graduate

We provide a personalized touch to research assistance

We work to keep you on track and reach your goal of completion

We are able to carry out portions of your project while you focus on daily life

Comments from past and present clients:

"Survey Design Services helped me finish my degree in half the time. I was able to concentrate on my work and family knowing they were there working for me. I'd recommend them highly"

Kyle H. Former Client and Graduate

"SDS responds almost immediately when I need them. Working fulltime, I couldn't do this without them!"

Mike C. Current client

"If you need that extra help to complete your degree I would definitely recommend SDS. I was able to finally finish what I had put off for years. They are the best!"

Jody H. Former Client and Graduate

We welcome prospective clients to contact any past or present client to ask them directly about our services. Just ask how!

www.surveydesignservices.com